

U.S. Intelligence Chief's Surprise Visit to Australia

CPYRGHT

Canberra, Sept. 28.

Mr. Allen Dulles, United States intelligence chief, today called on Mr. R. G. Menzies, the Australian Prime Minister, soon after his arrival here on a surprise visit.

Mr. Dulles, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and brother of Mr. John Foster Dulles, the Secretary of State, arrived last night from Djakarta in an Air Force plane. Mr. Dulles is on a regional tour.

His appearance at Parliament House to meet Mr. Menzies was the first public disclosure that he was in Australia. As well as meeting Mr. Menzies, Mr. Dulles was to have talks with Federal Ministers and senior officials.—Reuter.

South China Morning Post
17-4-56